

Gender Studies Minor Create Your Own Curriculum

The program's flexibility means that you can craft a Gender Studies minor that reflects your interests, whether it is a focus on women and their contributions, LGBTQ+ topics, cross-cultural & intersectional perspectives, or gender more generally. All approaches can fit within the curriculum.

Sample Gender Studies Minor focused on Women and their Contributions

GENS 2400: Introduction to Gender Studies
CLAS 2400: Women in Classical Antiquity
ENGL 3300: Women and Literature
HIST 3140: Women in American History
HLTH 3002: Women's Health Across the Lifespan
GENS 4000: Topics in Women's and/or Gender Studies

Sample LGBTQ+ & Sexuality-focused Gender Studies Minor

GENS 2400: Introduction to Gender Studies
ANTH 2025: Sexual Behavior from an Anthropological Perspective
HLTH 3025: LGBT Population Health and Disparities
PSYC 4350: Psychology of Sexual Behavior
SOC 3326: LGBT Identity, Society, and Politics
GENS 4000: Topics in Women's and/or Gender Studies

Sample Gender Studies Minor with a Cross-Cultural Focus

GENS 2400: Introduction to Gender Studies
ANTH 3200: Women's Roles in Cross-Cultural Perspective
GEOG 4320: Gender, Economy, and Development
HIST 3680: Women and Gender in the Middle East
RELI 3690: Women and Religion
GENS 4000: Topics in Women's and/or Gender Studies

Sample Gender Studies Minor that maximizes the use of General Education Credit

GENS 2400: Introduction to Gender Studies (GE:SO)
ANTH 2025: Sexual Behavior from an Anthropological Perspective (GE:SO)
ENGL 3300: Women and Literature (GE:HU DD)
RELI 2350: Religion and Sexuality (GE:HU)
SOC 1010: Race, Gender, Class (GE:SO DD)
GENS 4000: Topics in Women's and/or Gender Studies