PROFESSIONAL APPOINTMENTS

2021- present Associate Professor of Sociology, East Carolina University

2020-2021 Associate Professor of Criminal Justice, East Carolina University

2017-2020 Associate Dean for Academic Administration (100 percent appointment,) College of Liberal Arts and Sciences (CLAS), Northern Illinois University

CLAS comprised of more than 20 BA/BS, 20 MA/MS and 10 PhD programs across 19 departments and 5 interdisciplinary academic centers representing natural sciences, social sciences, and humanities; 200 tenured or tenure-track faculty and 100 non-tenure track (.5 or greater FTE) instructors.

Management of $3.5 million - $5 million college instructional staffing budget comprised of non-tenure track instructors in a unionized/collective bargaining context. Over 100 FTE union instructors on annual renewable contracts across 21 programs in college.

Achieved reductions in instructional staffing budget by $1.5 million in 3 years in response to College and University budget mandates while maintaining program quality and student access to program needs.

Led, coordinated, and managed college summer school scheduling and budgeting ($600,000/year) in accordance with collective bargaining rules.

Increased online course delivery in summer school by 50% since 2017 across the college offerings.

Coordinated outreach courses/delivery at satellite and community college partner campuses for college; managed associated college outreach annual budget ($300,000.)

Served on University Bargaining Team for initial collective bargaining agreement with tenure-line faculty union. Expertise in promotion and tenure, faculty workload, leaves, academic freedom, discipline, grievance, etc.

ad hoc Provost's Committee on Family Leave Policy leading to new institutional policies on paid family leave, new child in home policy, modified work plans, and tenure clock extension process.

Lead orientation and mentoring for new department chair and academic center directors (n=13) over three years.

Served on Office of Diversity, Equity and Inclusion's initial Diversity and Inclusive Hiring University Strategy Team

Served as CLAS liaison with HRS on faculty, professional staff, and civil service positions, hiring and separations, performance reviews, job descriptions and relevant rules and processes for all personnel actions.

2010-2017      Chair (75% appointment,) Department of Sociology, Northern Illinois University

BA/BS and MA programs. 15 tenure-track faculty; 4-5 non-tenure track FTE faculty; 300-400 UG majors; 20-30 MA students including 10-15 Graduate Assistants; significant general education program participation.

Responsible for coordination, preparation and appropriate execution of 10 tenure and/or promotion cases, including solicitation of confidential external reviewers, department P&T Committee review, and substantial mentoring of junior faculty members. Department TT faculty went from majority untenured in 2010 to majority tenured faculty during my chair appointment. Reduced review workload responsibilities of senior faculty in P&T process while maintaining rigor and executing appropriate faculty governance processes.

Lead complete faculty governance process for complete overhaul of department annual review personnel policy.

Lead creation of Criminology Certificate program. Growth to 200+ students and 80 certificates awarded per year since 2013-14.
